Peninsula Gospel Partnership Preachers' Pitstop

Preachers' Pitstop is an opportunity for your whole teaching team to learn and grow together.

Pastor/Teachers
Occasional Preachers
Youth leaders
Women's workers
... any one who gives a 'Bible talk'

Sidholm Hotel, Sidmouth

Thursday evening 22nd November to Saturday lunchtime 24th

Whether you preach regularly or occasionally, whether it's your 'day job' or something you do voluntarily, whether you open up the Bible in the gathered congregation or in another setting, the aim of the Pitstop is to help and encourage us to 'up our game' and work at our bible teaching and preaching.

A core conviction of Gospel Partnerships across the UK is
*The means of gospel ministry is the prayerful teaching of the Bible
It is as the Bible is taught in the power of the Spirit that God's voice is heard*

We long that, across the region, God's word might be proclaimed ever more faithfully, engagingly and compellingly, and that 'the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honoured' (2 Thessalonians 3:1)

The Conference

The main speaker is Andrew Sach. He is on the staff at the Cornhill training course and co-author of Dig Deeper and Dig Even Deeper – Tools to Unearth the Bible's Treasure. Andrew is a member at Christchurch, Greenwich.

There will be a mixture of expositions and workshops, looking together at Mark's Gospel. Although it is probably one of the more familiar books, Andrew will be helping us get to 'get in tune with the author's purpose, which is the essence of expository preaching.' He assures us 'There will be more there than we expect'
